Ross Wins Standing Ovation At City's Official Installation

Citizens lauded 33 years of service on the same job Tuesday night as they gave retiring City Clerk B. C. Ross a half-minute standing ovation during installation ceremonies held at the council chambers.

An overflow crowd of approximately 180 persons were on hand as Ross turned his job over to Mrs. Evelyn Mosman, formerly a deputy clerk, and Mrs. Mosman in turn swore in new councilman Paul Hupf, Mayor Joseph Verducci, and Treasurer Paul Selmi, the last two being re-elected to their jobs.

Just as the chambers were decorated profusely with potted plants, bouquets and floral arrangements, so the meeting itself was a night of verbal bouquets and congratulations, contrasting sharply with a few of the previous sessions.

Dennis Vacates Seat

After canvassing the ballots, the old council was adjourned and Edward J. Dennis, an eight-year veteran on the council, turned his seat over to Hupf.

Ross swore in Mrs. Mosman and she in turn called the new council to order.

Matter-of-factly, Councilman Sanford Vickers nominated Verducci for the chairmanship, and after his unanimous appointment to the job, the crowd broke out in applause. Councilman Micheal De Bernardi then moved for Vickers appointment as mayor pro-tem (vice mayor), and his selection was unanimous.

Resolutions commending both Ross and Dennis for their years of service to the city were passed unanimously.

Of Dennis, Verducci commented, "He's given eight years of valuable service, unselfishly and has given his time and efforts to work for a better community."

"Appreciate 8 Years"

Dennis congratulated Verducci and Hupf on their election. "I have appreciated these eight years," Dennis said. "It's been enlightening for me. I've voted squarely and never ducked an issue." He declared there were two points he wanted to get across before leaving: "That the city continue to consult with the state personnel board on salaries for city employees; and that the city continue with a program of street re-paving, especially in the old area."

He concluded his remarks with a mild jibe against Hupf, stating, "I'd like to congratulate the Men's club of Westlake for the campaign job they've done for Mr. Hupf. They showed none of us other candidates any mercy."

"Wonderful Servant"

Verducci premaced Ross' speech by labelling the clerk a "wonderful servant whose reputation is known throughout San Mateo county. I hope your life and leisure will be one you're very happy in."

John Walsh, president of Daly City Employees association, then presented Ross with a portable television set and also lauded the veteran civic servant.

Ross opened by thanking the Daly City employees "and the people in general who have supported me." He said, "I want to publicly express appreciation for my 33 years of service. I hope to see a good many of you from time to time. I'm going to remain here in Daly City."

Mrs. Mosman "Humble"

Mrs. Mosman declared she felt, "Humble because of Ross' loyal, faithful, honest service," and expressed a desire to give the same type of service and thanked the citizens for their vote of confidence.

She thanked Ross for "your patience in teaching me the job. I hope your retirement is very happy."

The mayor related that, "Mrs. Mosman is no newcomer to city hall and we're very happy to have her in the official family."

Selmi thanked the people for their "wonderful support," and declared he had been "signally honored" by the vote.

Verducci said, "I also offer my congratulations to Selmi for being re-elected."

In presenting Councilman Hupf, Verducci said, "Now we have a man who has demonstrat-

JUDGE UPHOLDS COP FIRING BY COUNCIL 2nd TIME

Fired Daly City police inspector David H. Johnstone's petition for a new trial was denied Monday by Superior Judge Edmund Scott.

Johnstone was fired by City Manager Howard Stites and the city council on May 23, 1955, and the city's action was subsequently upheld in Judge Scott's court after the policeman's attorney, John J. Fahey, had appealed the decision.

The request for new trial would have been automatically denied Monday, since Fahey had failed to file his brief within the statutory limit, but Scott ruled on the case in the council's favor as a matter of record. City Attorney Frank Blum had submitted the city's brief earlier and held that there were no grounds for new trial.

Johnstone was dismissed by the council for allegedly associating with a known gambler and failure to report all investigations to his superior officers.

Firing of Johnstone resulted in one of the charges filed by the recall group against three city councilmen. Because the council failed to reinstate Johnstone as requested by the recall faction, they were charged with "Disregard for the rights of the people."

Retiring City Clerk B. C. ROSS was presented with a television set Tuesday night by the city employees. They figured the gift would provide the veteran official with entertainment during his leisure hours.

And they were right. Ross was window shopping in Westlake shopping center that same day—for a TV set, but at the last minute did not buy one.

Former councilman PAUL GREEN points out an editorial goof we made last week, in stating that JOSEPH VERDUCCI'S 2718 vote total was the highest ever for a DC council candidate.

In 1950 Green polled 2862 votes out of a 6840 registered voters, while ANTHONY GAGGERO tallied 2804. At that time there were six candidates running for three positions, but considering the low registration, their showing probably figures a little higher than Verducci's.

The publicity writers for HOWARD HARTLEY for Assemblyman narrowly escaped libeling their own candidate in a handout this week.

The next to last paragraph of the duplicated release originally read, "As special agent for the FBI, Hartley received extensive experience in espionage, sabotage and communism."

They later pencilled in between

Selmi Will Share City Clerk Office

New City Clerk Evelyn Mosman and Treasurer Paul Selmi reportedly have come to an agreement over Selmi's use of the city clerk's office for his newly-created full-time job.

City Manager Howard Stites said he, Mrs. Mosman and Selmi conferred together Wednesday and that later Mrs. Mosman told him she and Selmi had come to an agreement.

Selmi, under the recent city ordinance making his position a full-time one, must move the treasurer's office from his private place of business at 39 Wellington to the city hall.

Stites said, "We'll make arrangements for setting up space for Selmi in the clerk's office as soon as possible so that it'll be available when he's ready to move in. The city will help him move his office materal to the new location."

Earlier Selmi had sought the chief of police's office for his own, but apparently decided the space in the clerk's office was adequate after his discussion with Mrs. Mosman Wednesday.

According to Stites, Selmi will utilize about one-quarter of the space in the clerk's office.

Selmi will probably move in about the first of next week.

EMPLOYEE PROTESTS DC COLLECTOR EXAM

Martin Strubel, temporary license collector and unsuccessful applicant for the job, protested before the city personnel board Wednesday that the examination was "unfair" and "didn't cover the subject."

In the recent examination held under state auspices, Strubel finished behind Gordon Roberts, 42, 600 Alvarado, San Francisco, self-employed salesman. Roberts, following an interview with Controller Jerome Scharfman this week, is scheduled to take over the position Monday at a salary of $281. Strubel was receiving $325 monthly.

Strubel, who has held the job under a temporary status since September, 1955, says, "I will go all the way on this. I'm going to take it to the council. I didn't get a chance to say a thing at the personnel board. Stites (City Manager Howard Stites) tried to influence the personnel board's decision." The board declared the examination was adequate as given by the state and denied Strubel's appeal.

Strubel, formerly poundsman here, now holds first position on the civil service list for dispatch clerk.

City Clerk Evelyn Mosman asked the board to fill position of deputy city clerk, and Juanita Giusti, currently police stenographer and matron, was given top priority for the job, having finished first in a field of three taking the recent examination.

Josephine Runne, a secretary in the police department, will probably take over Mrs. Giusti's position there.

Permanent status of John Callan as equipment operator in the street department was established.

The board tentatively made its decision on appointment of a buyer, but will still interview three more candidates. William Fitz-Patrick, who currently holds the job, did not take the examination.

Boys' World Journey Cut Short In Colma

Adventurous journey "around the world" was cut short in Colma Monday night when Broadmoor Police Sergeant Gale Galusha picked up two 12-year-olds who were setting forth with one bicycle, two old quilts and no money.

Notice of the runaways first came to police when an observer saw the two youngsters, both with packs on their backs, driving on one bicycle on El Camino.

Investigating the report, Galusha spotted the two boys, who explained that the first lap of their trip was to be Canada. Because they were without funds, they knew it would be impossible to get across the bridge so decided to go around the peninsula. The youngsters added that they planned to sell their bike if they found they needed money.

Galusha listened sympathetically and then turned the youthful adventurers over to Daly City police, who in turn released the boys to their parents.

George Augustien Dies At DC Home

George Augustien, 43-year resident of Daly City, died Tuesday at his home, 501 Evergreen avenue. He was 75 years old.

Augustien served as trustee of the Jefferson elementary school district for 18 years from 1929 to 1947. He was a long-time member of the Daly City Volunteer Firemen's association, was on the board of fire commissioners and in his later years served as a school crossing guard.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy said today, in speaking of Augustien's death, that he was a man who "lived up to fire department ideals."

The city council adjourned installation ceremonies Tuesday night in Augustien's honor, and the city hall flag was flown at half mast.

A native of Virginia, the veteran resident was a member of I. B.E.W. union, local No. 6. He was the husband of the late Grace L. Augustien. Survivors include three children, Mrs. Myrtle Kell and Mrs. Jessie Cooke of Daly City, and Charles F. Augustien of Sunnyvale; six grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services will be held this Friday at 11:30 a.m. from the mortuary of W. C. Lasswell and company. Inurnment will be at Cypress Lawn memorial park.

COPS INVESTIGATE NOVEL THREAT TO NON-UNION MAN

Threat to a non-union Pacific Gas and Electric company lineman was reported to police after the incident occurred last Wednesday.

Victim was John F. Kane, 135 Acton street, an apprentice lineman with PG&E who has refused to join the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers union, officers said.

According to the complaint filed with police, culprits Wednesday night let the air out of the tires on Kane's pickup truck which was parked in front of his house.

On a piece of adhesive tape stuck to the side of the truck, Kane found the warning: "Join the union or we'll let the air out of you."

Officials at the San Francisco PG&E office, where Kane is employed, said today that a report of the incident has been filed with their office. The company does not require union membership, they declared.

Mayor Slaps Recall; Hupf Says 'No Stand'

In a quiet, yet tense study session Monday night, the city council voted to retain Joseph Verducci as mayor and selected Sanford Vickers as vice mayor.

Newly-elected councilman Paul Hupf, who actually didn't take office until Tuesday night, was immediately confronted with a hot issue—the recall election facing three councilmen May 15.

Vickers first question to the neophyte councilman was, "How do you feel about this recall, Mr. Hupf?"

"I've taken no stand at all," replied the councilman-elect. "I'm inclined to stay out of it to be frank with you."

Vickers answered, "We all have to work together. A statement from you would be most gratifying. After all, we have to keep stability in government."

"My inclination is to take no stand at all," repeated Hupf.

"Something Wrong?"

Vickers then asked Hupf if he "Felt something was wrong," to which the 34-year-old attorney answered, "I was preoccupied with my own campaign. I feel at this late date I'll stay out of it."

"I think we know how Joe (Mayor Verducci) feels," observed Councilman Del Wilson.

Verducci made public his stand against the recall at a meeting of the North County Council of Cities last Thursday in asking that the percentage of voters needed to force a recall vote be increased.

"I have always felt this recall unwarranted," the mayor said. "I feel the charges are unsubstantiated."

The mayor then went on to urge that, "All of us fight for a change in the recall law. It's a tough enough job to get people to run for office. I don't feel these minority groups should have such strength when they only represent 12 per cent of the registered voters."

"Specific Charges"

Verducci repeated his suggestion made before the North County Council that "Some scrutinizing agency in the county such as the grand jury make specific charges before a recall could be started."

Verducci's proposal to draft a resolution asking for an increase in the percentage of signatures required for recall was endorsed unanimously by the North County Council Thursday.

"Actually, you were up for recall," Vickers told Verducci. "The recall group said they would get you at the polls last week, but the people didn't fall for the propaganda."

Tense Moments

Actual re-organization of the council Monday provided some tense moments, as the council for the first time had to select a vice mayor, as required by a law adopted by the state legislature in 1955.

Selection of a mayor proved no problem, as Vickers moved immediately that Verducci continue on as chairman. The remainder of the council appeared in quiet consent.

But when it came time to appoint a vice mayor, the room echoed with silence.

"Well, somebody start the ball rolling," said Vickers. "I don't want to have the floor all the time."

The mayor said, "I don't feel I should propose someone for the job as I'm the mayor."

Asked by Vickers what his opinion was, Councilman Micheal De Bernardi said, "Let me think about this. We've got May 15 staring us in the face."

Wilson declared, "I don't want any part of the job myself. It would scare me to death."

"Never So Quiet"

Another long period of silence followed, interrupted by Verducci's observation that, "I've never seen a council meeting so quiet."

De Bernardi broke the stillness by proposing Vickers for the job.

Filing for local school board elections to be held May 18 closed Wednesday with eight candidates in all joining the two races. Five men have expressed intention to gain the two seats up for election on the Jefferson elementary school board, while three persons will seek the one vacant seat on the Jefferson Union High school board.

Candidates for the secondary school board position now held by Mrs. Mildred McGeein are Herman G. Kalinin, 179 Citrus avenue; Donald Miller, 909 Reina Del Mar, Sharp Park, and Mrs. Helen Stout, 5 Fleetwood drive.

Seeking the two trustee posts on the elementary board are Incumbent Michael Callan, 755 Hillside boulevard; Incumbent Joseph Lewkowitz, 501 Vista Grande avenue; William Beck, 431 89th street, Colma; Ralph Lewis, 528 B street, Colma, and Thomas Noonan, 471 C street, Colma.

30-Year Resident

Kalinin, first to file for the high school board, was an unsuccessful candidate for the post in 1954. The 44-year-old contractor has lived here 30 years.

He and his wife, Mildred, are both graduates of Jefferson. The couple have three children: Robert, junior at the University of California and 1951 Jeff graduate; Richard, now in the navy and 1954 graduate of Jeff, and Ronald, a freshman at the local high school.

Miller, 38, is now serving his fourth year on the Laguna Salada elementary school board. He told THE RECORD today that he will retain his seat on the coastside board if he is successful in the high school contest.

Closer Liaison

"I believe that a closer liaison between the elementary and the high school districts is badly needed," Miller said in explaining his decision to run for the high school board.

Miller, who attended Rollins college in Florida before joining the army in 1940 for a six-year stretch, is now serving as assistant contract manager of the San Francisco office of the Morris Plan company. He is married and the father of two sons, Clint, 11, and Don, 6.

Third candidate for the secondary school board, Mrs. Stout, 45, is a graduate of the University of California where she majored in home economics. Although she now lists her occupation as housewife, she is a former teacher and social worker.

Two Sons

She has lived in Daly City for two years and is the mother of two sons, Robert, 11, and Richard, 5. Mrs. Stout is a member of the Westlake PTA, the American Association of University Women and the Broadmoor Presbyterian church.

"I am running because I feel people should be interested in the schools, in the children and in the teachers of the children," she explained today.

Present chairman of the elementary board, Michael Callan, said today that his slogan for re-election will be to retain the "same good record" as he has in the past. Callan has been a member of the board for about eight years, having first been appointed and then twice elected to the trustee post.

Local Man Recalls Losing All In Earthquake Of '06

Wednesday was a memorable anniversary for many San Franciscans, for on April 18 fifty years ago the now-famous earthquake and subsequent fire leveled a substantial part of the city.

Like many another, Andrew Vireno, of 20 Flournoy street, a resident of Daly City for 44 years, lost his business and all his possessions in the fire that followed the quake. Time has somewhat mellowed the tragedy, and there is a trace of proudness in his recollection of that day.

In 1906 Vireno, then 24, owned a wine and liquor store at 27 Kisling stret, between 11th and 12th streets, and lived in a rooming house next door. He recalls being awoken by a violent shake at approximately 5:30 a.m. on April 18.

"Everything in the room was knocked over," Vireno recalled, "and I had to force the door to get out of my bedroom. But otherwise there was not too much damage done to the house.

"I came out on the street, and found it crowded with people in their night clothes. Again I had to force the door to get into my store. Small after-shocks continued to come at short intervals for about a half-hour after the first quake."

Vireno said he was not too much concerned at first, since the earthquake itself had not done too much damage to his rooming house or store.

"However, I got a little scared," he related, "when I saw a large brick building a couple of blocks away cave in and saw flames shooting about 50 feet in the air from a broken gas main at Eighth and Market streets."

Soon after the first shock a fire broke out at Fifth and Natoma streets where a PG&E gas tank exploded. "It didn't appear that the fire would spread as far as may store, since they were dynamiting buildings to make a firebreak. So I went to Colma to see my fiance (now his wife) and find out what damage had been done there.

"When I returned that night at 6 o'clock, my store had burned down. Police had the block roped off and no one was allowed inside. All I had left was the clothes on my back."

After spending a few days in Colma with his fiance's parents, Vireno returned to the city and obtained living quarters on 23rd street. As he recalls there had not been much damage done in Colma, "although some fissures had opened up in the earth."

He recalls being forced to cook out in the streets for two to three weeks after the blaze, since, under martial law, no fires were permitted indoors.

But Vireno, along with the rest of San Francisco, quickly recovered, and by May 15 that same year he opened a new store at 23rd and Florida streets.

In 1912 he moved to Daly City and opened up a business at Mission and Flournoy streets. He and his wife, Theresa, still live on Flournoy street, and will celebrate their Golden wedding anniversary in September. They have four children.

For all his recollections, Andrew Vireno had to admit that Wednesday was a much nicer day than it had been 50 years ago. The sun was even shining.

EARL TAYLOR NEW MAYOR OF COLMA

At a re-organization meeting Wednesday night, Earl Taylor, owner of Pets' Rest cemetery, was named mayor by the Colma town council.

He will replace Ray Ottoboni, who has held the chairmanship for the past year.

USF Student Injured In Junipero Serra Wreck

A University of San Francisco student was slightly injured Wednesday night when the car which he was driving was hit and overturned at the intersection of Junipero Serra boulevard and Knowles avenue.

Bradley George Bidleman, 18, of 1544 Cayuga street, San Francisco, told police that he was traveling east on Knowles and the signal light turned yellow as he started across the intersection at Junipero Serra.

He said another car, being driven north on Junipero Serra by Calvin Dale Pitcher of San Bruno, hit his auto in the right rear fender and turned it over, according to police reports.

Pitcher said he did not see Bidleman's car because the cars in the lane to the left of him were ahead of him, police said. He had been stopped at the light.

Pitcher was cited for failure to yield the right of way to a car already in the intersection.

Bidleman was taken to Junipero Serra hospital and treated for minor injuries to his knee and head.

More than 200 Girl Scouts of all ages (Brownies, Intermediates, Seniors and leaders) from the Garden Village-Broadmoor neighborhood, recently visited the Coca Cola plant. Ex-councilman EDWARD J. DENNIS has been approached to run on a recall group ticket should any or all of the three councilmen be ousted, but he says he rejected the offer.

VICTOR D. FRANCO went to the hospital the other night for something most of us don't do enough of.

Franco, 163 Winchester street, was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital Sunday evening after a marathon 45-minute laughing spell that left him a little the worse for wear.

I'd like to find out what the joke was. It sounds like a surefire party story.

Those of you who weren't watching the Salute to Baseball on TV Sunday, may have gotten a glimpse at the local lad who made good, HAROLD LANG, who appeared in the rehearsal of the new play, "Shangri-la," broadcast over Wide, Wide World.

His parents live at 14 Alp street.

Lang will co-star in the production with LEW AYRES.

SAM VALENTINO, former recreation center custodian who was fired by Recreation Director JAMES MASON and who appeared unsuccessfully to the personnel board, has re-applied for a city job.

Those sheriff's officers are still tippling bourbons at an outside-the-limits nightery while supposedly on duty.

Maybe the increase in cost of whiskey accounts for the staggering increases in county taxes.

FRANK SMOLLEN, 50 Peoria street, was treated at Junipero Serra hospital one early a.m. last week for a bite on his thumb that attendants said was inflicted by a human.

Smollen did not care to elaborate on the swollen digit.

A Fresno superior judge has ruled that auto giveaways conducted by a trio of gas stations in that area constitute a lottery, and has ordered a permanent injunction to stop the practice.

Local gas station owners say the precedent-setting ruling will touch off similar action here.

ed the way to put on a political campaign."

"It's not entirely my work," Hupf said. "Many men worked very hard for me."

He declared that, "I stand committed to work for the betterment of the entire community and for cementing the old and new, if there is such a division. I will strive to overcome any differences. I will work to meet the problems of all and attempt to fulfill the commitments in my campaign."

Verducci said he entered his second term with a "Deep sense of humility.

"I have stood for certain principles, programs and the people have indicated they want me to continue with these programs by their vote," the mayor said.

"There is no need to tell you where I stand on recall," he interjected.

Verducci said the biggest job ahead was to "Unite both sides. I don't want to hear any more about the old and the new." He concluded that he would "do everything possible to carry out my campaign."

Offers Farewell

The other incumbent councilmen were called on to speak and De Bernardi opened by offering, "Farewell to a close friend, Mr. Dennis." He went on to say that, "This council is a diversified one and many times we've had battles but we never carry these out to the public." He expressed hope for a "stronger, bigger Daly City."

Councilman Del Wilson congratulated Hupf for "a wonderful, sincere campaign." He observed that, "I'm proud to represent the people of Daly City and proud of my vote in the last election." He urged citizens to exercise their right to vote.

"Our Privilege"

Vickers said, "It is our privilege as councilmen to help citizens plans for the future." He declared new growth would bring many problems, but that "an orderly pattern of civic development is a must."

"The councilmen must relate today's decisions with tomorrow's needs," he continued.

"It is a challenge to be a councilman. We must do what is pleasant, and sometimes unpleasant, but we have to work for the greatest possible number. The essence of democracy, however, is that the people decide. The peril of democracy is that the people decide in ignorance."

The meeting proceeded smoothly throughout, and the entire installation was completed by 9:15 p.m.

Mayor Slaps Recall; Hupf -- 'No Stand'

"It's a matter of thought. I have other matters which take a lot of attention, but I would enjoy the position very much," Vickers commented.

Hupf still had no comment on the selection of a vice-mayor, although officially he was not yet a councilman so really had no vote.

It was then that Vickrs queried Hupf on his stand on recall.

In other action at Monday's abbreviated meeting, the council discussed appointing a replacement for Hupf on the city personnel board. Hupf said he planned to resign the board as soon as he was installed as councilman.

Next Monday night the council will have to replace Edward J. Dennis, defeated incumbent, on the North San Mateo County Sanitation district board of directors, which is always manned by two councilmen and one county supervisor. Vickers is the other director.

Also to be named Monday will be the two members of the council's finance committee, who scrutinize all warrants for expenditures.

This Friday afternoon the council will tour the city with City Manager Howard Stites to acquaint Hupf with the various departments.

AT THE RISK OF REPETITION

We will risk being repetitious this week to extend the heartiest thanks for past performance and sincere hope for a happy life ahead to that veteran public official, B. C. Ross, who wound up 33 years as city clerk Tuesday night in a humble and gracious manner.

Little we can say will add more tribute than the half-minute standing ovation given Ross by the citizens of the community assembled that night in the council chambers—the same citizens whom Ross has served so diligently and whose parents received the same untiring devotion to duty.

Not only did B. C. Ross exemplify the highest efficiency and attention to duty in his 33 years as clerk and keeper of the records, but he also pioneered Daly City's beginning as a member of the first full-term city council in 1912.

He was instrumental in developing Daly City's water works, a project that has unquestionably turned out to be Daly City's finest asset. He also helped launch the first street paving program in Daly City, and saw the community evolve from a dairy settlement to a near metropolis.

Yet during all the transition period, both as a councilman and clerk, he continued to keep pace with new development, increased population and the increasing burden which confronted him.

As was mentioned Tuesday night, Ross carries a reputation for efficiency, thoroughness and honesty that is known throughout San Mateo county.

Daly City's records, tax transactions, assessment and minutes of the council meetings have been punctiliously kept by Ross over a period of 33 years, practically without error—a record that few public officials can maintain even for a year.

He has served well and his work has been appreciated. And under his earlier tutelage, we feel the new city clerk, Mrs. Evelyn Mosman, will probably parallel his performance.

But no one will deny, she has a high mark to shoot for.

SWEETNESS AND LIGHT -- HOW LONG?

One new councilman, Paul Hupf, and a re-elected city father, Joseph Verducci, were installed in office at formal ceremonies Tuesday night, along with new City Clerk Evelyn Mosman, and returning Treasurer Paul Selmi.

Appropriately, Tuesday's session was free from political harangue and bitter controversy.

The entire theme was one of progress, mutual understanding and cooperation in working for a greater Daly City.

We are not so naive as to believe this atmosphere of congeniality will prevail at all future meetings.

But it is a fine way to start off a new term. May we look forward to more like it, instead of looking back to this one.

THEODORE BEUSCHER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Beuscher, 142 Rice street, San Francisco, shakes hands with Chief Petty officer Paul Polagmus after young Beuscher signed up at the Daly City branch of the Navy recruiting office.

To the Editor:

Proclamation

Californians have always been attentive and responsive to the needs of the great public school system of this state.

In California, public education is the first business of the state government, having so been written into the constitution of the state.

Our schools today face a serious problem. The high birth rate of war years and in-migration have created an acute need for more classrooms and more qualified teachers in order to maintain the high standards of our public schools.

The California Grand Lodge of Masons answered the call to similar problems existent thirty-seven years ago, when the Lodge launched Public Schools Week to alert all citizens to the needs of public education.

The thirty-seventh observance of Public Schools Week will take place April 23-27, 1956. I urge this community to take an active part in the observance and to learn about the functions and needs of education locally, that we may here do our part toward the advancement of greater understanding and appreciation of the high standards of California's public schools.

Signed: JOSEPH VERDUCCI,
Mayor

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

April has been a month of showers, weatherwise and baby-wise. Jackie Hayes of Stewart avenue had a shower given for her over in Westlake by Thelma Christopherson and Dolores Attell, with 26 guests there to enjoy Jackie's happiness and to exclaim over the table favors, which were storks made of safety pins. Meredith Orloff represented the Village at the affair.

Flowers and flowers, including fresh frozen ones floating in the punch, and a miniature clothes line with baby clothes on it were the decorations Margaret Musto, Dolores Helmer and Billie Buchanan used at the shower they held to honor Mary Jane O'Brien. Margaret's Thornhill home was stork headquarters, with storks made of marshmallows presiding over each guest's place at the table. It was quite a gay evening, we hear, with Jean Box and Hilda Stettler there to play the accordion so all the favorite Irish songs could be sung. Singers included Joann Gwin, Eileen Crofton, Bea Gantert, Doris Cunningham, Vi Murphy, Dolores Reed, Jean Cain, Ann Duffy, Marge Shields, Carol Barton, Shirley Dillon, Jeanie Collins and Nita Delfino.

One of the nicest PTA meetings we've attended was the Jeff Hi unit's installation meeting last week. A most thought-provoking play was given by some of the students, and the discussion afterwards was entered into by parents, teachers and students in a very stimulating manner. Kay Mullen was installed as historian, which was sort of special as it was her birthday. Alma Wittig, Stoneyford friend and neighbor, and Kay's mother, Mrs. E. E. Zender, were there for the occasion, and there was a family dinner party just before the meeting, so our Katherine had a gay day, all told! Many happy returns!

There's another new DeSoto station wagon around town. Geri Furst, Village Lane's home economist, is swishing around in a maroon and cream one now, so Logans got theirs painted pink and gray just in time, or there would have been a great deal of confusion among people who know where other people are by the car parked in front! Geri is busier than busy packaging her three frozen food specialties—an assorted box of hors d'oeuvres, one of sweet tidbits to be served with tea, and a special dressing for poultry in a new and novel form. Right now she is busy looking for help, so any Village housewife with a yen for part time outside work can call Geri at PL. 5-8145 and help get these tongue-tickling delicacies ready for marketing.

Bethel 198 Event

Speaking of food, representatives from the Golladay, Hansen, Masterson, Krueger, Weibel, Mattison and Newcomb families all enjoyed a special spaghetti feed put on by the girls of Bethel 198. That is one busy bunch; now that that project is over, they are working on their whist and canasta social for Thursday, April 26. Tickets are 50 cents and will be available at the door at 17 Hillcrest, Daly City, but a call to the young lady of any of the above-listed households would be a good idea if group reservations are wanted.

Too many of our Villagers have been in the hospital. Stanford Hannah, Vincent Cauchi, Pat Stockslager, George Chichester, and Henry Kraus have had or are having a hospital "vacation" and we would like to wish them all very speedy recoveries; they're missed around the Villages. Young John Guz is not feeling too well either, and we hope he's back at school before long.

Ex-Washingtonite Verna Duste journeyed up this way from San Mateo the other day to accompany friend Barbara Subke to the Little Symphony concert. Both Lee Subke and Ray Duste performed in said symphony, and very admirably too. Afterwards, everybody adjourned to the Colonial and old home week talk over post-concert refreshments. Incidentally, Verna has happy birthday wishes coming (late!) for her day on April 14.

Three more birthdays this past week belonged to Kiddieville's Sam Godes, Phyllis Chiosso and Maurine Guymon. Sam and Maurine don't talk about their ages, but Phyllis is very cheerful about being seven years old! Nancy Dethlefsen, Karen Guymon, Debbie Leech, Ginny Jones, Claudia Guz, Judy Land, Gail Land and sister Elaine Chiosso were the friends who came to Phylis' Foothill home to share cake, etc., and to have fun playing bingo.

Maurine being a Foothill resident, too, Fran and Frank Dethlefsen gathered the clan at their house to celebrate with cake and coffee. Naturally, Maurine was there with husband Del, and so were Norma and Carl Wandt, Mabs and Vic Guz, Vivian and Bob Leech, Ruth and Trevor Jones, Doris Chichester, and Lita and Rudy Muller. Needless to say, everybody had a fine time.

Extend Welcomes

One thing we like to do is welcome new families, and we have a chance to welcome two this week. One is Mrs. Dorothy Roth and her daughter Nicky, who are new Maddux dwellers, and the second is Bob and Ardyce Daughterty, and their two daughters, who now live on Manila. We understand that Bob is currently studying at State College for his teacher's credential, and more power to him. To the Roths and the Daughertys—glad to have you aboard!

Another birthday for the record—Beverly Tonnissen's eighth. The house on 89th street had a distinctly Hawaiian air about it, with a pineapple centerpiece on the table, and leis for each guest, plus flowers for their hair. Eighteen girls were there, including all Beverly's classmates from Miss O'Rourk's third grade and neighbors Robin and Susan Frisch, and Tenny and Laurie Rice.

We found out about a few more Easter vacation travels of some of our families. The Bullen tribe from Village Lane went down to San Bernardino to see Betty's parents, the P. W. Taylors. Betty's sister had a bridge party for her, where she met all her old school friends, and she also went to a club luncheon. The three Bullen children were happy having Easter week, plus an extra one afterward, with their grandparents and a lot of country to play in. Art had a different sort of a time; he spent a lot of it shuttling back and forth. He spent some days in San Diego on Navy business, and Betty went down to bring him back. They spent one night with Navy friends in La Jolla, and later had an evening with friends in Pacific Palisades. One thing which particularly interested her children, Betty told us, were the quarter midget races at San Bernardino. Her young cousins have one of the little cars, and the older boy has won eight trophies. The races are for kids from 4 to 12, and the cars will go about 25 mph.

Other travelers were the Frisch family, who went north to Yreka to see Jean's parents, the Baumgartners. Jean said that spring was there in full force, and that the countryside was beautiful. Wonder how the latest storms have been behaving up there?

Small World!

It's-a-small-world department: Dean Weibel, who is now in Navy training at Newport, Rhode Island, ran into a friend from grade school days in Park Ridge, Illinois, and the two were assigned as bunkmates. Coincidence! Inez tells us Dean writes that so far he is enjoying his Navy career. . . . The Weibels had guests recently, the Otto Timms from Nebraska, who had never been to SF before. Of course, there was an enjoyable round of dinners out, sightseeing, and family talk, as the Timms are Ted's cousins. Incidentally, we just learned that Inez has been teaching first grade in Lindenville school in SSF all year. Where have we been?!!

Phil Carpenter, who lives on 87th street, took his daughter, Betty Chinevere, who lives on Maddux, to Reno for a couple of days as a birthday present. They went by bus, and Betty said it was a pretty ride through the mountains. There was lots of snow, covered with lots of skiers! They spent a lot of time in Harold's Club, and some time in the Mapes and the Riverside, and came home quite pleased about the whole thing.

Some of our local ladies were invited to assist at the installation of officers for the Shoreview Memorial VFW Auxiliary in San Mateo. It was a formal affair, and we hear our girls looked most terrific in their pretty evening clothes. Ruth Fisher was the installing officer, Hazel Eagleton and Hilda Stettler were conductresses, and Stella Magoon, Meredith Orloff, Maryann Read, Agnes Sirianni, Robbie Holden, Simone Posadas, Anita Woods and Dorothy Weible filled the chairs. Incidentally, congratulations are due Stella as the newly installed president of our own local group, VFW 9921 auxiliary.

Nathan Spear, early-day San Franciscan, is said to have built the first flour mill in California on Clay street near Montgomery; it was run by mule-power.

LETTERS POUR IN TO SCOUT OFFICE IN S. F.

From Teaneck, N. J., to Paradise, Calif., from Union Bridge, Md., to Three Rivers, Mich., and from hundreds of other cities and small towns all over the United States and Canada, letters have been streaming into the San Francisco Scout Council office to be serviced with a special cachet originating from the 1956 Boy Scout Exposition, coming to the Cow Palace, April 20-21.

The cachet service will be part of the special post office facility and stamp exhibit booth, staffed by members of Boy Scout Troop 15, sponsored by St. Anne's Catholic church, and Cub Pack 16, sponsored by Park-Presidio Lion's club, Inc.

The postal booth, one of the 300 displays filling the Cow Palace and covering every phase of the Scouting program, will have much of the standard equipment essential to receiving, servicing, and mailing.

In addition to the cachet servicing and selling of postage stamps, the booth will have a cancellation machine, weighing scales, pigeonhole cases, mail pouches, a mail box, and a copy of "Postal Laws and Regulations."

All postal equipment is on special loan from the San Francisco Post Office, John F. Fixa, Postmaster.

The cachet itself will follow the general theme of the Exposition—"Forty Years of Scouting in San Francisco," as the San Francisco Scout Council celebrates its 40th year of service to the city's youth.

The giant all-boy Exposition gives the Scout Council's 10,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorer and Sea Scouts, an opportunity to show San Franciscans what Scouting is all about through displays and demonstrations showing the entire range of Scouting skills, crafts, hobbies, games and sports.

The San Francisco Scout Council is a member agency of the Community Chest, supported by the United Bay Area Crusade.

Mrs. Benofsky's Kindergarten

The Kindergarten enjoyed seeing the little yellow duck that Charles Lansing received for Easter.

Last week Teddy Titular had his birthday party at school. We had fun pulling the pretty yellow favors to make them pop. Then we all enjoyed the candy, ice cream, and cookies. Many of our girls and boys are having birthdays this spring.

Our room chose Kathy Gilmore as our candidate for May Queen. We are learning a dance for the May Festival.

Miss Kearney's Fifth Grade

This week the children in the fifth grade had fun glazing the clay masks they made. After the glazing is finished, the masks will be baked again and the children will have some interesting things to take home.

They are planning to make folders during the art period for their best work which wil be displayed during Public School Week.

WYANDOTTE STREET Sewing club, which meets on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month, gives the nine members an opportunity to "sew and chat." Here a few of the women meet at the home of Mrs. Elna Jones (third from left, with sewing) for one of their social get-togethers. Wyandotte Club Offers Chance To 'Sew And Chat'

Editor's note: This is the 21st of a series of articles on local women's organizations. THE RECORD will feature one of the groups listed in our files each week.

The Wyandotte Street Sewing club, which was organized about four years ago, boasts nine members. Meetings on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month are primarily social events and give the members an opportunity to "sew and chat."

When asked what type of sewing the women accomplished at their meetings, they admitted to doing "mostly mending because it's easier to talk."

Big social event of the year falls in May when members get together for an evening of dining out, paid for by dues collected throughout the year. The club then adjourns for the summer.

Only officer is the treasurer whose duty it is to collect dues. This office is now being held by Mrs. Edith Loomans.

Other members are Alba Cuicci, Mel Ellis, Mary Flynn, Florence Dale, Mae Haaland, Eleanor Hjille, Elna Jones, and Virginia Moore.

War Mothers To Aid Vets At Ft. Miley

Mother's Day gift distribution is being planned by Vista Grande chapter, No. 77, American War Mothers, at Fort Miley Veterans' hospital on May 2.

It is the aim of the mothers, not only here, but all over the United States, to see that no mother of a patient in a VA hospital is forgotten on her day, according to Mrs. Chrystal Schueszler, VA representative. Veterans are given choice of gifts; cards are signed by them; then the gifts are taken by the mothers, gift wrapped and mailed.

Inasmuch as about 300 gifts are needed at Fort Miley, the committee felt that perhaps others might like to add their bit to the efforts of the mothers who are sponsoring this project, Mrs. Schueszler explains.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Schueszler, JUniper 4-7721, or the VA alternate, Mrs. Jacoba Horning, MIssion 7-6518.

DON'T BE STAMPEDED!

There IS opposition to the so-called "oil conservation" measure being circulated in California

Its promoters are* Standard Oil, Richfield Oil, and several other major international oil companies with HUGE ARABIAN OIL INVESTMENTS

They have already spent several million dollars to propagandize their scheme. They are planning to spend millions more to put it over at the November election.

WHY?

In the public interest?

Or in their own interest?

Why did they by-pass your representatives in the State Legislature?

Were they afraid that committee hearings and floor debate would expose their "conservation" bill as a greedy and arrogant OIL CONTROL device to give them MONOPOLY over the oil business in California?

Why didn't they consult the hundreds of small independent California producers, refiners and marketers?

Was it because they want to choke off competition from the independents? If the independents are throttled, won't the major international oil companies flood California with Arabian oil and line their pockets with fabulous profits?

HOW WILL OIL CONTROL AFFECT YOU?

What will it mean to the property owners of California?

How many California workers will it throw out of jobs?

What will it cost the State in wealth and taxes?

THE CALIFORNIA OIL INDUSTRY OPERATES TODAY—AND HAS OPERATED FOR YEARS—UNDER STRICT STATE CONSERVATION LAWS. THESE LAWS ARE THE BEST IN THE NATION.

YES, there IS opposition to this OIL CONTROL scheme; and there will be growing opposition from an aroused public when the true story is told.

Don't be STAMPEDED! Get the FACTS! Don't be MISLED!

Jeffs Seek to Regain Lead In San Mateo Game Today

Coach Lou Martin's Jefferson high school nine has a chance to jump back into a tie for the first place spot it lost Tuesday when it meets San Mateo high school this afternoon (Friday) on the local diamond at 3:15 in an NPAL contest.

The Indians fell one-half game behind Capuchino when they dropped a 9-3 decision to Burlingame Tuesday on the winners' field. The loss gave Jeff a 4-1 league mark, while Capuchino, which downed winless Hillsdale Tuesday, has a 5-1 record.

The Indians are the favorites today over the defending champion Bearcats, who have dropped four of their first seven league contests. Jeff edged San Mateo, 6-2, in their first meeting. Capuchino is idle today.

Five Jefferson errors helped Burlingame knock the Indians from the front-runner position. Losing pitcher Tex Prentice gave up only six hits and one earned run in the five innings he worked, but due to Indian errors he left the game trailing, 6-3. Reliefer Ed Leveroni gave up the other three runs on two hits.

Prentice gave himself a boost by doubling across Tom Cloutier, who had singled, and Leroy Franzoia, who got a free pass, in the second to narrow the Burlingame lead to 3-2.

Jeff tied it up in the third when Cloutier and Barrie Haanan hit back to back triples. But the Jeffs were shackled without a hit the rest of the game, and Burlingame scored once in the fourth, twice in the fifth and three times in the sixth to ice the game.

Last Friday's scheduled game with South San Francisco was rained out, and is tentatively rescheduled for Wednesday. In other games next week, the Jeffs face the San Francisco State junior varsity Tuesday and cellar-dwelling Hillsdale in a league clash here Friday.

JEFF NATATORS NEAR DUAL SEASON CROWN

The undefeated Jefferson high school varsity swimmers gained the inside track to the NPAL dual meet title by dumping previously unbeaten Burlingame, 42-34, last Thursday in the local pool. The win left Jeff on top of the heap with a 5-0 mark, and dumped the Panthers into second with a 4-1 record.

The Indians can annex the title by beating South San Francisco, which they met yesterday (Thursday) at SSF after THE RECORD went to press. This meet winds up the dual meet season, with NPAL trials beginning Thursday at Carlmont.

Jefferson grabbed six out of nine firsts in beating the Panthers. In the lightweight divisions, the Indian thirties bowed, 37-31, but the twenties triumphed, 27-23.

Dick Rasor moved up from the thirties to spark Jeff's varsity win with a double victory in the 50-yd. freestyle and individual medley. His times were :26.2 and 1:54.2 respectively.

Other varsity winners were Ray Lippert, 100 back, 1:10.3; Bill DeLucchi, 100 breast, 1:14.1; Andy Ruelas, diving; and the Jeff four-man relay team with a 1:54.2 clocking.

Only first for the Jeff thirties were Howard, individual medley, :54.3; Marshall, diving; and the four-man relay team, which was timed in :53.4.

Winers for the Indian twenties were Jorgenson, 50 free, :30.1; Ahern, 50 back, :37.5; and the medley relay team, 1:06.5.

Scout Council Tells Policy On Baseball

In answer to requests from residents of northern San Mateo county regarding the Boy Scouts stand on organized softball among Cub packs, the San Mateo Scout Council this week issued the following statement.

"The Scout movement has a program of its own. It does not depend on activities borrowed from the gymnasium or the ball field. Scouting offers a program that opens a new field of endeavor and fun for boys and does not try to compete in areas where other agencies are already specializing and doing a good job."

The Council emphasized that, "Physical fitness is a part of the Cub program, but being a part of the achievement program it necessarily means that father and son do these things together and under conditions other than organized athletics."

Jeff Spikes Crush Knights; Face Cap Here Today

Jefferson high school's varsity track squad swept every first place except one in crushing Hillsdale, 104-9, Tuesday on the Jeff oval to stay in the race for the NPAL dual meet title.

The Jeffs wind up the league dual meet season today (Friday) against Capuchino at 3:15 on the local field. The Indians have a 4-1 league mark.

The Jeff lightweights made it a clean sweep over Hillsdale, the thirties winning, 76½-36½, and the twenties, 53-15.

Double wins by sprinter Ron O'Rourke and weightman Jim Farley sparked coach Ernie Ribera's varsity. O'Rourke took the century in 10.6 and the low hurdles in :21.1. Farley annexed the discus with a toss of 116' 8¼" and the shot at 43' 1".

In addition, the Jeffs swept seven events, the high hurdles, 100, 440, 220, high jump, shot put and discus.

Other winners for the varsity were Don Weisner, high barriers, :16.2; Calloway, half-mile, 2:10.1; Grasso, 440, 55 flat; Jim Honeywell, 220, :22.8; Bill Curtis, high jump, 5' 8"; Al Arneson, pole vault, 11' 6"; Jerry Howard, broad jump, 19' 8½"; and the relay team, 1:34.9.

Double winners Sonny Martinez and Bruce Lovazzano paced the Jeff thirties to victory. Martinez nabbed the 150 in :15.6 and the broadjump at 18' 10". Lovazzano took the highs in 10.6 and the pole vault at 9 feet.

Other Jeff first places came in the 660, Andy Estigoy, 1:30.1; 1320, Al Davila, 3:34; discus, Dave Harris, 103' 8¼"; shot, Carl Mecchi, 43' 5"; and relay team, :47.3.

With Harvey Marston grabbing the low hurdles and broadjump, the Indian twenties took all but two first places. Marston was clocked in :15.8 in the lows, and had a mark of 16' 5" in the broadjump.

Other winners were Andy Scalese, 75, 9.1; Deal, high jump, 5 feet; Dean, shotput, 37' 3¾"; and the relay team with a :51.2 clocking.

Tomorrow (Saturday) the Indians will participate in the 15th annual Martinez relays, and next week travel to Palo Alto for a battle with the PAL powerhouse.

Daly City Will Have Its Own Entry In 500-Mile Indianapolis Racing Classic

Daly City will be represented by a florist in the Indianapolis Speedway 500-mile racing classic May 30—but his entry won't be a bouquet.

George Bignotti, who operates a flower shop at 6175 Mission street, will be 3000 miles away from the wreaths and potted plants this month when he takes his recently-built $18,000 racer to the Indianapolis track to start preparing for the grueling race classic.

George is probably known better for his ability as a race car owner and mechanic than he is as a florist, and he should gain further renown come May 30.

In the garage of his home at 17 Concord street, San Francisco, Bignotti last week put the finishing touches on his re-built Offenhauser, built by Meyer-Drake, and carrying 270 cubic inches displacement.

11th Last Year

The motor powered the No. 98 car that finished 11th at the Speedway last year, piloted by Duane Carter.

Bignotti re-built the motor completely and left for Los Angeles last week with the power plant that he will install in a chassis now being designed by Curtis Craft.

Bignotti will tinker with the motor and body this week in preparation for his departure to Indianapolis April 26.

First shakedown run on his vehicle, which will be officially known as Bowes Seal Fast Special No. 15, will be on May 1.

If all goes well, George will let the machine alone until about May 10, when first qualifying runs will be held. The local florist figures because of a new track surface, it will take 140 miles per hour or better to qualify over the route.

His First Entry

For Bignotti, who has been handling race cars for 15 years, this will be his first entry in the 500-mile "Sweepstakes" of racing.

It won't be his first time at the Speedway, however. George has travelled to Indianapolis for the past two years, working all during May as a mechanic in the pits. In 1954 Bignotti worked on the Merz Engineering entry, which placed sixth. Last year as a pit man for the same firm, Bignotti's auto finished fifth. George hopes the steady improvement will hold this year.

In the cockpit will be Johnny Boyd, who made his first appearance at Indianapolis last year and was involved in the high-speed smash-up that resulted in the death of racing veteran Bill Vukovich of Fresno.

Boyd drove for Bignotti in 1951 and 1952 when he won the midget racing championship.

A Little Help

George is quick to point out that the $18,000 investment in the car is not all his. He is being sponsored by Bowes Seal Fast company, and will be backed by this firm in other events throughout the entire racing year.

Bignotti will have some Daly City support when he leaves for Indianapolis. Accompanying him as mechanics are Charles Tabucchi of 479 Woodrow street and Frank Catania of Daly City Auto Wreckers.

Bignotti's entry in the classic auto competition will be the only one from the Bay Area. This will also be the first time San Francisco, and of course, Daly City, has ever had an entry.

Come May 30, Daly City residents can keep their eye on the black and white No. 15 with red trim. And we're not talking about floral arrangements.

CUB PACK 341 HAS TRIPLED SIZE IN ONE YEAR PERIOD

Since receiving its charter not quite a year ago, Cub Pack 341 reports a growth of nearly 300 per cent.

The pack, sponsored by Daly City-Colma Italian American Citizens club, now has a membership of 30 boys, and is still seeking more recruits.

In the near future the pack will begin formation of a baseball team and will compete with other Cub units.

Meetings are held at the Colma community center and any boys interested in Cubbing are invited to attend.

DC LADY KEGLERS COPY 7:30 LEAGUE AT BRENTW'D BOWL

Winning bowling championships is becoming a common occurrence for a local feminine five, as Kalinin Painters collected their fourth consecutive title in the Brentwood 7:30 Friday night scratch league.

In accepting the sponsors trophy, Herman Kalinin expressed appreciation to his keglers for their "efforts, sportsmanship and victory."

Receiving individual trophies were the following members of the team: Donna Almquist, Bretta Morris, Agnes Malz, Alberta Diebel, Clara Giacoma and Millie Kalinin.

Presentations were made at a banquet held Saturday at Oliver's restaurant in South San Francisco. Some 80 persons were on hand for the occasion.

Cops Arrest SF Woman On Drunk Drive Count

A San Francisco waitress was arrested early Saturday morning after police said they spotted her car weaving down Misison street. Charged with drunk driving and with driving with an improper license was Wanda De Berry, 33, of 901 Bush street, San Francisco.

Officers said a motorist first reported the woman's alleged unorthodox driving. Upon arrest Miss De Berry was taken to Junipero Serra hospital where a sobriety test proved positive. A male passenger in her car was released.

Miss De Berry was released on $275 bail and is scheduled to appear in court next Tuesday.

General Pershing

Mrs. Wilson—Second Grade

The second grade boys and girls have been very interested in health. We are learning good health rules and using them. Some children have been making charts—to tell what we are learning. Others are writing stories about health.

Springtime means "growing" time for this second grade. Janice Iodence brought a bean plant she had planted and we are interested in how fast and how tall the plant will grow. Some of the children will plant their own bean plants.

Mr. Edwards—Fifth Grade

On our trip we went to the Japanese Tea Garden in Golden Gate Park. There we drew pictures of what we saw. We ate our lunch at the park, then went for a walk and visited the hothouse.

In the hothouse were beautiful flowers. The climate in the hothouse was very warm in some rooms and cool in others, depending on what kind of flowers were growing.

We learned lots of things about trees, grass, and flowers on our trip.

Saftey Patrol

The Safety Patrol of General Pershing School has been doing a good job. We will be rewarded. The reward will be a trip to the International airport. We will be able to look at some of the new airplanes that they have. We might see a few planes landing and taking off. We will be going on May 3rd. We will be looking forward to the trip.

Mrs. Ohlendorf To Attend Convention Of Lutheran Women

Mrs. Anna Ohlendorf, 95 San Joaquin avenue, a member of Bethel Lutheran church, will represent 32 societies as a delegate to the International Convention of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League in Denver, Colo., this weekend. Delegates will be present at the convention from every state, plus Canada.

Opening service at the Convention will be conducted by the Rev. Herbert Hellbusch, president of the Colorado district of the Lutheran church, Missouri Synod, who will use as the topic of his talk the convention motto, "Occupy Till I Come." Colorado's Governor, Ed Johnson, will be on hand to welcome the delegates.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary league is an auxiliary organization within the Lutheran church, marshaling the talents of the women of the church in a united effort to serve the Lord in the cause of Christian missions. This is done by a three-fold program of missionary education, inspiration and service. The league consists of 36 Districts, 3,992 societies and 161, 561 members, located in every state of the Union, in Canada and in Caracas, Venezuela.

Since 1953 the League has made it possible for Missionary Retreats to be built in South America at a cost of $30,000, in Japan costing $15,000, and in the Philippines for $15,000. Arrest Two DC Men After One Allegedly Draws Knife In Bar

Two Daly City men were arrested Saturday morning after customers at a local tavern complained that one of the pair drew a pearl-handled knife.

Claude Wesley Varble, 39, an accountant, and Tony Caldra Duran, 40, laborer, both of 313 Irvington street, were charged with being drunk in a public place. They were released on $25 bail and are scheduled to appear in municipal court on Tuesday.

According to the police report, the pair entered the Veteran's Inn, 6025 Mission street, at 9 a.m. and started talking to the other customers in Spanish. When they were asked to speak English, Varble is alleged to have drawn the knife which he handed to Duran.

Duran then began cleaning his fingernails with the knife, officers said, after which he placed the open knife in his coat pocket.

When the pair were asked to leave by the bartender, they became boisterous again, according to the complaint.

Upon the arrival of officers, the men had left but were found next door in another bar. The pearl-handled knife along with two others were discovered on Durant, police said.

DEATH SCENE from "Masque of the Red Death," Jefferson High school creative arts workshop production staged Saturday, shows sanguine figure looming over victims of the plague. Adaptation of Edgar Allen Poe's famous story was a one-day project by students at Jefferson, and marks the first time such a workshop has been held in Bay Area schools.

POE'S 'MASQUE' RECEIVES NOVEL TREATMENT AT JEFF

Edgar Allen Poe's macabre tale, "Masque Of The Red Death," received a very individual and outstanding treatment Saturday in the form of a play presented by the drama music and art departments at Jefferson Union High school.

A unique experiment among Bay Area high schools, the project emphasized creative ability on the part of the students, according to Miss Eunice Seaton, dramatics coach at Jeff, who directed the presentation.

The enterprise revolved around Poe's story of death and disease when the plague strikes peasants and rich alike. But it could have been any story. As the saying goes, "The play's the thing."

The some 45 students from the various departments first read Poe's story and analyzed it with their own interpretations.

No Preparation

Then, without any previous preparation, the students descended on the high school grounds en masse Saturday morning and showed an industry that would make the Seven Little Dwarfs lazy by comparison.

With the "Masque Of The Red Death" still fresh in their minds, students began rehearsing, designing sets or creating music, depending on which department they were working with.

In the space of a few short hours, colorful props and backdrops were created, costumes were designed, all the products of the art students' ingenuity and interpretation of the story they had just read. The drama students improvised their own dialogue, but still held to the pattern of the story.

The music students, meanwhile, composed somber and undulating rhythms compatible with the dirge-like mood of the story.

Merge Elements

A 5 p.m. all these elements were brought together to mold into a delightful and thought-provoking vehicle that Miss Seaton described as "fabulous."

"I was very amazed at what they did," she said. "And the important part is that they're anxious to go ahead with another creative arts workshop."

Three members of the San Francisco State college faculty participated in the production. They included Mrs. Burdette Fitzgerald, creative dramatics, Dr. John Tegnell, creative music, and Paul Flick, creative art.

Heading each segment of the program at Jefferson were Miss Seaton, dramatics, Al Runnels, music, and Don Carlson, art.

From the enthusiasm shown at Saturday's production, you can count on seeing a few more creative arts workshops at Jefferson High school.

News of Your Local Library

Popular interest in the Biblical scrolls which were found in 1947 in caves near the Dead Sea has created a demand at the Daly City Public Library for information regarding this great discovery.

The subject of the Dead Sea scrolls has been part of the reading of thousands of people in the past few months. The dramatic way in which the discovery has been publicized has aroused a great demand for material about the scrolls and their interpretation.

Although the translation and interpretation of the scrolls will engage scholars everywhere for years to come, two books are now available at the Library which tell about the discovery of the scrolls, and also give an explanation of how the scholars have worked to translate them. These books also include some translations of parts of the scrolls.

SCROLLS FROM THE DEAD SEA, by Edmund Wilson, is an account of the origin, discovery and implications of the scrolls. The author visited the Dead Sea site in the course of his investigation and he tells of both the scrolls and the scholars who are translating and interpreting them.

THE DEAD SEA SCROLLS, by Millar Burrows, outlines the story for the layman and summarizes the many disputed theories about the background and contents of the scrolls. The author was director of the American School of Oriental Research in Jerusalem at the time of the discovery.

Among other new books at the Library, are: KUMARI, a new novel of India, by William Buchan, son of the famous British author, John Buchan, Lord Tweedsmuir; THE PROUD MAN, by Elizabeth Linington, a novel based on Irish history; UP HOME, by Ardyth Kennelly, a family story; Nathaniel Weinreb's ESTHER, based on the Biblical story; and David Garnett's ASPECTS OF LOVE.

Two volumes of short stories have also been added to the Library's collection recently; Jessamyn West's LOVE, DEATH, AND THE LADIES' DRILL TEAM and the annual collection, THE BEST AMERICAN SHORT STORIES, 1955, edited by Martha Foley.

Two new books on San Francisco also grace the Library's shelves: STREETS OF SAN FRANCISCO, the latest of the popular author, Samuel Dickson's, collections of radio anecdotes; and VIGILANTE JUSTICE, by Alan Valentine, a study of the Committees of Vigilance. For those who like a thrilling story, there is Walter Lord's A NIGHT TO REMEMBER, the story of the Titanic disaster recently presented on television.

Maurice Collis' CORTES AND MONTEZUMA is a readable account of that period of Mexican history, going into the personalities of the two great men involved. Lighter reading is provided in the last work of the late, beloved Bernard De Voto, in THE EASY CHAIR, a collection of some of the best of his discursive editorials.

These and other new books, as well as the old standards, are available at the Daly City Public Library, 6351 Mission street (phone PLaza 5-0850), and the new Westlake-Broadmoor branch library, 34 Park Plaza drive (phone PLaza 5-0842). Any of the books mentioned may be reserved by telephoning either library.

Women's Auxiliary Plans Meeting On St. Martin Dinner

Most important event to date in the seven-month history of St. Martin's Episcopal church will be the building fund drive parish dinner May 7 in the new Westlake auditorium, according to Mrs. Gordon P. Andrews, women's auxiliary president and member of the building committee.

Also on the agenda was appointment of committees to collect and sell articles at the rummage sale May 23 in Patrick's rummage room, 436 Hayes street, San Francisco. Proceeds will also go toward the building fund along with approximately $700 from the Christmas bazaar held by the women.

Mrs. Donald L. Piercy, 184 Northgate avenue, PL. 6-1530, who has taken charge of rummage collections, reports a slow response and urges everyone wishing to contribute to call her promptly to facilitate pickups.

Arranging the potluck dinner, Mrs. Andrews and Mrs. Piercy will head a committee composed of Mrs. Kenneth W. Brugge, 515 87th street; Mrs. John E. Ellis, Sharp Park; Mrs. Walter F. Michels, 65 Westfield avenue; Mrs. Reuben H. Hunt, 11 Lake Meadow drive; Mrs. Mervyn Stang, 196 Wilshire avenue; Mrs. Fred Brown, 26 Westlawn avenue; and Mrs. L. S. Final plans for the Broadmoor Property Owners association's spring clean-up Sunday were discussed at the group's monthly meeting Thursday night, according Jack Baker, president.

STITES SELECTED DISASTER CHIEF

City manager Howard I. Stites was appointed director of the Daly City civil disaster council at the groups' second meeting Friday night.

Other appointments put fire chief Elmer Kennedy in charge of fire services, police chief Roland Petrocchi in charge of police services and director of public works Cyril Weiler in charge of rescue and utility services.

The appointments were made after mayor Joseph Verducci, in opening the meeting, said that the work of the council parallels that of the city council and that it is desirable to use department heads as heads of similar services on the council.

In addition, two men with administrative backgrounds are being sought to head the evacuation and communications services.

In other action the council:

1. Mapped out plans for the next three monthly meetings by asking representatives of the red cross, local schools and the local medical association to attend successive meetings. These agencies will be tied in with the council's program one by one.

2. Appointed Andrew S. Castle secretary of the board.

3. Appointed Castle, Art Colvin and Don Lesher as an executive committee which can meet between regular meetings.

4. Stites reviewed the kinds of things to be expected by the various services.

Stites termed the meeting a success, stating that there had been "a lot of progress." He said that service heads already appointed will work on rough plans to be presented at next months' meeting.

Stites said that the council will try "to accomplish one step each meeting."

The group also saw a movie, "When Disaster Strikes," and then adjourned at 11 p.m.

Vote "NO" on Recall

DALY CITY SPECIAL ELECTION MAY 15

Recall Is An Important Tool Of Democracy

Recall of public officials is a right of the people. But it should only be employed when there are valid charges against these officials. Used indiscriminately as in this case, recall can be vicious, can upset the operation of government for political expediency, and can discourage forever men of ability entering government.

Recall Has Been Mis-Used

- Charges Against the Councilmen Are Unfounded.
- The Charges Are Irresponsible.
- These same Councilmen Were Duly Elected By the People in 1954.
- Recall Creates Unrest, Lack Of Stability In Government; and Discourages Qualified Men From Seeking Office.
- Had Charges Against Councilmen Been True, They Would Have Gone to the Grand Jury.

Mrs. Eckert Takes Gavel As Jefferson High PTA President

Thursday evening a new group of officers were installed for Jefferson Union High PTA as follows: Mrs. John Eckert, president; Mrs. Edward Goldkuhl, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Hansen, recording secretary; Mrs. Frank Klassen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Fred Bertetta, financial secretary; Mrs. John Hiller, treasurer; Mrs. Albert D'Isep, historian; Mrs. G. Reandeau, auditor; and Mrs. Thomas Mullen, parliamentarian.

Mrs. G. J. Sirex, former president of Seventeenth district, was the installing officer and she used "bells" as her theme. Each officer was identified with an appropriate bell and Mrs. Fred Kruse, retiring president, was asked to stand in as proxy for Mrs. John Eckert, who was ill. A beautiful green ceramic lighter and ash tray set was presented by Mrs. Anthony Gaggero to Mrs. Kruse from her executive board members.

Following the business meeting, a one act play entitled "Fresh Variable Winds" was enacted by Miss Seaton's drama students. The cast included Bernard Mayville as Jeff; Margaret O'Brien as Aunt May; Larry Shaw as Tucky; Linda Wienholz as Helen and Jackie Hansen as Mrs. Gridley. Inasmuch as this play was one of a series put out by the national committee for mental health, it provoked deep and mixed feelings in the audience. Miss Seaton conducted a discussion session which would have continued at length if time had not run out.

All guests were invited to have refreshments in the cafeteria which were served by the executive board under the direction of Mrs. Richard Mollison.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

An important musical event took place at San Francisco State college last Friday evening: the Bay Area premiere of Gian-Carlo Menotti's latest opera, "The Saint of Bleecker Street." Presented by the Creative Arts Division of the College and, of course, sung in English, "The Saint" on the whole made a very good impression, if thunderous applause at the final curtain is any indication of audience reaction.

Laid in the Italian-American section of New York, its principal character is Annina, a frail deeply religious young girl who hears voices, sees visions and in a moment of religious ecstasy bears the stigmata of the crucifixion. Her only wish is to become a nun.

In this she is blocked by Michele, her brother, an intense twisted character driven by an unhealthy love for his sister. He is frustrated in his efforts to prevent Annina's taking part in a neighborhood religious procession, and the first act curtain descends on his turning for comfort to Desideria, a girl of questionable morals who loves him.

Violent End

This love affair comes to a violent end when Desideria, the only uninvited guest at a wedding party, taunts Michele about his morbid feeling for his sister. Enraged, he kills her and flees.

The final act opens in a subway station where Michele, in hiding from the police, meets Annina briefly. He learns that her voices have told her she has not long to live. Nothing he says can shake her determination to take the veil before she dies. The final curtain falls on Annina's death in their cold-water flat, but not before she has attained her wish.

As you can see, it is an extremely theatrical, melodramatic opera, abounding in crises which quite naturally lead to musical crescendos that shake the audience, both emotionally and literally. The result isn'tp articularly melodious, but it is exciting.

High Standard

For an Opera Workshop performance, "The Saint" hit an amazingly high standard, vocally, even though in the climaxes which seemed to occur every five minutes, the percussion section was inclined to beat the audience over the head.

If you missed it last week, you have a second chance this Friday and Saturday to congratulate this group on their first major opera production staged in the new main auditorium.

We feel that we can't close the column without mentioning the astounding acoustics of the College's auditorium. We don't think you'll believe your ears. We know that we didn't believe ours.

Girl Scouts To Hold Folk Dance Festival

Plans are now underway for the second annual Northern San Mateo Girl Scout folk dance festival to be held May 5 in South San Francisco. General dance chairman is Cecelia Leach of Sharp Park.

Local dance consultants assisting Mrs. Leach are Mrs. Jean Bruggee of Daly City and Mrs. Yvonne Matejchik of Sharp Park.

Dances to be presented include the following: Swedish Masquerade, Patty Cake polka, Milanovo Kolo, Virginia Reel, Gustav's Skol, Oklahoma Mixer, Circle Schottische, Pop Goes the Weasel, Fireman's dance and Cumberland's Square.

Troop No. 105, under the leader of Mrs. Casselli with the assistance of Mrs. June Strong, will do three exhibition dances.

Registration is being carried out by the host troop, flag ceremony by their assisting troop, and luncheon and song fest will complete the day's program.

The event, to be held at the Orange avenue recreation center in South San Francisco, will last from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. General chairman of the festival is Mrs. Richard Donner.

County CD Officials Blasted By Verducci

Daly City mayor Joseph Verducci joined John K. Wright, chief warden of Burlingame's civil defense organization, in blasting San Mateo county CD officials for lack of organization at the North County Council of Cities meeting last week in South San Francisco.

Verducci hit county CD officials and the San Francisco disaster administration for failing to contact Daly City and work out an evacuation plan.

Earlier in the meeting Wright asked the group to demand a complete reorganization of the Joint Cities-County Civil Defense planning board and the resignation of its chairman, Supervisor Edward R. McDonald, and co-ordinator, Harry Koch of Redwood City.

In blasting these men and county manager E. Robert Stallings, Wright said "today there is no organized and trained disaster organization holding regular exercises, in any political subdivision of San Mateo county with the possible exception of a radiological unit formed last year in the southern part of the county."

The council refused to go along with Wright's demands after a lengthy argument during which McDonald, Koch and Stallings were defended by various councilmen. A committee of mayors was appointed to make a study of the charges and report at the next meeting.

Wright's charges included: no promotional or educational activities put forward by the co-ordinator; no suggestions from the chairman; no co-ordination between cities or between county and cities on mutual CD problems; and no regular meetings of the joint board with a planned agenda.

Crowd Views Opening Of Library Branch

An estimated 350 persons got a preview look at the new Westlake-Broadmoor branch library at 34 Park Plaza Saturday, in advance of the actual opening Monday.

An audience of 75 persons assembled for the actual dedication ceremonies at 2 p.m. and then several hundred other interested citizens visited the branch during the preview opening which lasted until 5 p.m.

Mayor Joseph Verducci cut the ribbon actually opening the branch, which contains some 5000 adult and children books and will serve citizens of the Westlake-Broadmoor area. Others who appeared and spoke briefly were Councilmen Sanford Vickers and Micheal De Bernardi and Virginia Ross, county librarian.

Mrs. Sol Lieberman, Westlake PTA president, presented library commission chairman Wayne Carr with a check for $112.39 from the PTA. This money will be used to start a collection of phonograph records for the branch.

In addition to Carr, who acted as master of ceremonies, library commissioners Dr. Lionel Farber, Jane Keith, Margo Westgaard and Maude Hanselman were present.

Following the opening, Friends of the Library Group served refreshments. Hostesses were Mesdames Robert Woods, Jack Kendree and Howard Stites.

The library was opened to the public Monday at 1 p.m. Hours are from 1 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, 1 to 5 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays, and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturdays.

The temporary branch will be operated until construction of a permanent branch in Westlake, now in the planning stage.

RECALL ISSUES: RECORD TO RUN PROS AND CONS

(Ed. note: The following is an article submitted to The RECORD by the opponents of the recall of three Daly City councilmen. Each week from now until the recall election, May 15, a total of eight column inches of free space will be made available to the opponents and proponents of recall. The recall group was apprised of this policy but have not yet forwarded any material to this newspaper.)

Formation of a Citizens Committee Against Recall was announced this week by Roy Foster, 536 Hillside boulevard.

"The irresponsible and unfounded charges made against the three councilmen make it necessary that civic-minded citizens rally to their aid to dispel the lies, innuendo and general smoke screen that have been created by the recall group."

"The recall," Foster explained, "is an important tool of democracy that can be used to remove officials who have been guilty of gross mis-conduct or graft in office. But in this case it was merely the matter of a political pressure group attacking the councilmen because the councilmen had the courage to vote against them on certain issues."

Foster pointed out that the whole future of Daly City might be at stake if the recall were to go through. "The stigma the recall has already placed on our progressive and well-governed city is bad enough," he said. "But should the political pressure group be successful, government of our city would be dictated by a small but vicious clique who could smear every good candidate in sight and place their own puppets in office."

Foster said the Citizens Committee Against Recall is made up of public spirited members of the community who do not want to see Daly City return to the era of boss politics that existed years ago.

"We feel the representatives of the recall group were rebuked soundly at the municipal election last week because the majority of the people can see through the political tactics of the recall group," Foster said.

He added however that, "It is important to gain the interest of every citizen in the true reason behind the recall. Should the right-thinking citizens fail to turn out at the polls Daly City's government could be controlled by a minority that has been misguided by its ambitious leaders."

"A 'No' vote against recall," Foster concluded, "is a vote for the continuation of government by the people as a whole—not a few ambitious politicians."

San Mateo county bears the Spanish name of Saint Matthew.

FATE SMILES ON LOCALITES IN W'LAKE DRAWING

Fate smiled on four lucky shoppers of Westlake Shopping Center last week; two from San Francisco; one from Colma and one from Westlake. They were the winners of the second of Westlake's $10,000 prize contest drawings, and their numbers were picked from the big drawing barrel by Mayor Joseph Verducci.

Top winner for the final drawing was O. W. Hellwig, 576 Funston street, San Francisco, with ticket number 67713. Like Mrs. Norma Albrechtson of Sharp Park, who won the first contest, he will receive one of the 1956 Chevrolet sedans purchased from Les Vogel.

The $1000 mink stole went to Mrs. James Farrell, 131 Shakespeare street, San Francisco. Her lucky ticket was number 19968. Winner of the first mink stole, given away two weeks previously was Mrs. E. Stich, 412 Central avenue, San Francisco.

Third prize to be awarded in the drawing was an acre lakefront view lot in Buckingham Park on Clear Lake. It was won by Mrs. Barney Mullen of 707 87th street, Broadmoor. At the first drawing, a similar lot was awarded to Mrs. Gene Siekert, 245 Crestlake drive, San Francisco.

The final 24" Silvertone TV set which was given away was won by a Westlake man, T. R. Giannini Jr. of 1068 South Mayfair avenue. The first set which was given away went to Mr. and Mrs. A. Glavin, 36 Tacoma street, San Francisco.

Presentation of awards was made by John Doelger on Wednesday.

Special preview opening of library was held Saturday, prior to actual operation of the branch Monday. Cancer Drive Begins Here This Week

As part of the annual April campaign of the American Cancer society, more than 300 volunteers this week are conducting a house to house solicitation of funds in the Daly City-Broadmoor-Colma area.

Pointing out that a quota of $2,400 has been set for this area, Mrs. Julia Cohn, North San Mateo County chairman, said, "We are confident that the amount desired will be raised. When people once become acquainted with what the American Cancer society is accomplisihng, they are only too willing to contribute their share to the continuance of the fight against cancer.

"Most people know of the American Cancer society's tremendous program of research and education," she continued. "What is not generally realized is the actual local work done by the San Mateo County branch of the society. Forty per cent of all funds raised in San Mateo County remain here to support the local program of service to cancer patients. Through its 'Loan Closet,' the San Mateo county branch makes available on loan, without charge, necessary sickroom equipment such as beds, wheels chairs, tables, and a great number of similar items. In addition, visiting nurse service, transportation by ambulance, and drugs and medications, are available to cancer patients in cases of demonstrated need."

Assisting in the direction and organization of the fund raising campaign, are the following area chairmen: Broadmoor, Mrs. K. W. Brugge; Colma, Mrs. Blanche Lagomarsino; Daly City (east of Junipero Serra), Mrs. Lyal Ingersoll, Mrs. Lynn V. Cinti, Mrs. John A. Eason, Mrs. Edward Dennis, Mrs. Andrew Castle, Mrs. William M. Rudometkin, Mrs. Harvey Cross, and Mrs. Norris Silbar; Daly City (Westlake area), Mrs. Henry Friedman, Mrs. H. S. Garrison, Mrs. U. R. Kendree, and Mrs. Gordon Andrews.

Podesta Nine Enters 'D' Loop Second Half

Podesta Nursery will meet an as yet unnamed opponent Saturday in the first round of the second half of the San Francisco 'D' baseball league.

The nurserymen split a pair of practice games over the weekend, edging El Cerrito, 5-3, and bowing to Johnny Shell juniors, 10-8.

Pitcher Phil Fair allowed only three hits, and got credit for the win over El Cerrito. Dick Geno led the hit parade with two singles, while John Souza, Gary Podesta and Paul Clima had one apiece.

Four errors by Cornell Holmes, letting four Johnny Shell runners score, proved the difference in the other game. Losing pitcher Rick Greenwood allowed only five hits, and reliefer Terry Tracy gave up none.

The Podestans outhit the winners, 7-5, with Dick Geno and Ronnie Townsend getting three singles apiece. Richard Mortola collected the other Podesta bingle.
